

Internal Marketing Coordinator

Perfect Fit Closets is a Closet distribution and manufacturing company where we cater to over 100 plus authorized dealers (and growing) across North America. We help our dealers navigate the full process of closet sale, closet design and closet installation. Each of our team members are well versed in all of these areas as we cross train with each other on a continual basis.

Our team is looking for an Internal Marketing Coordinator to bring Perfect Fit Closets culture to life. This position requires but is not limited to the following day-to-day tasks: keeping up with market trends, creating internal and external advertising campaigns, promoting products and information internally to our authorized dealers, creating a bigger presence within our online community and creating marketing documents.

Our mission for this role is to continually give our dealers the WOW experience by educating and promoting our products and services and to influence Perfect Fit Closets prospect dealers. This position is a work from home position that requires you Monday to Friday from 8 am to 5 pm.

Our biggest successes to date is our ability to information share, recurring education, and providing exceptional support to our dealers. Their success goes hand-in-hand with our success. We will train you to build your confidence in this role but we need you to show enthusiasm, wanting to learn and wanting to be part of this team.

We look forward to speaking with you!
